Location: Central Arkansas Library, 100 Rock Street, Little Rock, AR

Description: The important strategic goals of being an adviser for Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) will have the participant ready to go for the upcoming school year. Focus on providing the adviser with the skills and tools necessary to succeed in leading an FCCLA School Chapter is important. The adviser will learn the various components of effective FCCLA Chapter Management. Competitive Events, officer positions, and national conference content is throughout the training. FCCLA has something to offer everyone! This training will be in person unless COVID guidance changes. If guidance changes, we will have the PD virtually.
